Spacious Family Home With Pool

Only fifteen minutes from Launceston CBD this impressive family home is a rare find in the current market, providing the ultimate in comfort and space. Positioned on an internal block the property offers peace and privacy along with a beautiful contemporary design.

The expansive floorplan presents numerous options for a family needing room to move, with 4 double bedrooms (all with built-ins), an impressive kitchen and open plan living area, a media room with surround sound and a separate office space.

The contemporary kitchen is the heart of the house with quality appliances, loads of storage and a central island bench with breakfast bar. Everything a busy family needs is on offer here with a main bathroom with bath and shower, a spacious tiled ensuite, a separate laundry and toilet.

The glass sliding doors from the living area lead outside to an undercover entertainment space and a timber decked salt water pool. The expansive block is fully fenced with loads of space for the children to run freely, complete with a cute, fully lined cubby house and above ground garden bed.

Located off the remote access double garage there is a separate, private room perfect for a home office or study space complete with a custom-built desk and
