6 Cardigan St, East Launceston

Leafy, Sunny & Peaceful in East!

This 1950's home sits proudly on the high side of the street and showcases some picturesque views of the mountains past Newstead and over to Relbia.

The property has been transformed over the past 16 years by it's current owners to provide a stylish and comfortable family home.

Catching lots of sun and light the main living area is both bright and inviting with a wood heater and heat pump. The new chef style kitchen (less than 12 months old) offers plenty of storage options, stone bench tops and a nice breakfast bar. It flows to the dining / second living space with sliding door access to the deck.

A spacious hallway with storage cupboards leads to three good sized bedrooms, all with built-in robes and the master with an ensuite. The main bathroom is both stylish and simplistic.

The extra large laundry certainly offers plenty of space and functionality. Bright neutral tones and polished floors add to the liveability.

The large outdoor deck area which overlooks the rear garden, offers views across Newstead. The entire 1,039 sq m block has been fully landscaped with a wide selection of trees, shrubs, fruit trees and plants. Raised veggie beds are also set up and a new gravel driveway installed along with a concrete floor in the double carport.
