14 Quarantine Rd, Kings Meadows

Ideal First Home or Investment

This neatly presented home is a rare find in the current market, offering comfort and convenience in the popular suburb of Kings Meadows.

Buyers will be impressed by the well maintained interior of this property, with many 1940's features still on display including high ceilings and original timber and glass doors. There is exterior paint work to be done, however this property will perfectly suit an enthusiastic home buyer prepared to make the improvement.

The unique floorplan allows for plenty of options, with three large bedrooms and two separate living areas offering both wood and electric heating. There is warmth throughout in the colder months with a touch pad heat transfer system in place. The wide entry hall leads around to the large second and third bedrooms, while the master bedroom adjoins an impressive ensuite and walk-in robe. The updated kitchen has timber features and combined gas/electric cooking, along with ample storage and bench space. There is an expansive fully fenced deck area at the back and a deep storage space underneath the house. A garden shed and neatly presented front yard with an established hedge completes the picture nicely here.
