25 Ingamells St, Prospect

INVESTMENT NOW, LIVE IN LATER

This impressive home is a rare find in the current market offering comfort and convenience in the popular suburb of Prospect.

There is much on offer here and the split level floorplan allows for plenty of options. The top section of the house has been nicely updated with quality floor coverings, window furnishings and light fittings. A modern kitchen with breakfast bar opens to a dining area perfect for dinner with friends, while the adjoining lounge room is spacious and comfortable. Glass sliding doors lead out to an expansive undercover deck and a ground level paved area, allowing for year round entertaining.

Three of the bedrooms (all with built-ins) are located upstairs, while downstairs there is a space that could potentially be converted into a self-contained one bedroom unit (STCA). This area comprises a multipurpose family room with corner kitchenette, a fourth bedroom plus a shower room with toilet.

There is the convenience of a separate laundry downstairs and secure parking, including a double remote access garage plus a single carport. Solar panels assist with keeping the power bills low and the fully fenced back yard overlooks a peaceful bush reserve. There is also a garden shed and loads of space for children and pets to play safely.
