14 Hamilton St, West Launceston

Style, Class and Charm

Introducing 14 Hamilton Street to the West Launceston market and this home is simply stunning. Immaculate inside and out, the finish is an absolute credit to the builders and there's no doubt you will fall in love with what this property has to offer.

Completely transformed, the home is essentially a brand new build but has beautifully combined the charm of yesteryear with modern luxury and comfort.

The street elevation has been fully restored to Federation style and it sits in a private and quiet location in beautiful Hamilton Street surrounded by late 1800 cottages.

Once you open the front door, however, it is clear this property steals the show. The spacious bedrooms and open plan living, dining and kitchen space with high ceilings will more than impress. The huge extension to the property has seen no expense spared with new Colorbond roof cladding and gutters, double glazing throughout, fully insulated, gorgeous Tasmanian myrtle overlay flooring, large polished concrete kitchen bench top and floor heating in the main bathroom and en-suite just some of the stunning features.

Fully landscaped from the exposed concrete driveway and paving with remote-accessed car-port and two off-street spaces right through to the private
