

Ideal Family Home in an Ideal Location

This spacious 2001 home is set on a large corner block and would be a perfect match for a growing family in Legana. Buyers will be impressed by how well maintained the property is, with excellent potential to update the original kitchen and bathrooms if desired.

The floorplan is unique, with a vastly spacious open plan living area leading around to the kitchen and out sliding doors to a private walled courtyard. All four bedrooms (or three plus a study) lead off a long hallway that flows across the centre of the home, from the living room to the double garage. This garage space could potentially be converted into another living area (STCA) as it has direct access to a bathroom, a separate entry door and plenty of natural light.

The established lawns, garden beds and hedges provide a lovely leafy outlook from all windows and the block comes complete with a garden shed, raised vegetable beds and a fish pond. For a family with more than one vehicle this property is ideal, with the convenience of the remote access double garage, along with space to create extra parking bays for the boat or caravan.

A 'Pre-Purchase Building Inspection Report' has already been completed for buyer convenience and there are no major defects to address.
