84 Tompsons Lane, Newnham

Affordable Investment or Future First Home

Tenanted until February 2022 this home is a rare find in the current market, offering low maintenance living in the heart of Newnham. Originally built back in 1959, buyers will be impressed by the updated interior and the neat presentation of the current tenants.

The property floorplan is compact but highly practical with substantial storage throughout and the added convenience of a separate toilet and laundry. Two of the bedrooms are spacious while the third is smaller (currently a nursery) and all three have built-in wardrobes.

A surprisingly large living room flows around to a dining nook and modern kitchen, which offers an expanse of bench space and quality stainless appliances. At the back of the house there is a fully fenced area complete with raised vegetable beds and a garden shed. There is a significant amount of off-street parking and plenty of space to build permanent garaging (STCA).

For buyer convenience a 'Pre-Purchase Building Inspection Report' has already been completed and a copy can be emailed on request. Some exterior work is required here, and this property will best suit an owner occupier or investor prepared to make these improvements in the future.
