

66 Ernest St, Kings Meadows

ROOM WITH A VIEW

This expansive home is set on a large corner block and is a perfect match for a growing family keen to live in the popular suburb of Kings Meadows.

Built in 1976 there is much on offer here and the spacious split-level floorplan allows for flexible living arrangements. The top section of the house has been nicely updated with new floor coverings and a modern kitchen complete with quality stainless appliances, including a plumbed in LG fridge. This space is the central hub of the house and flows around into a formal dining area and light filled lounge room which is open and comfortable.

Glass sliding doors lead out to a generous deck, ideal for entertaining large groups of friends and family and the unobscured views from here are superb. The master bedroom offers a walk-in robe and ensuite while two of the other bedrooms have built-in robes. The main bathroom includes a shower and bath, with the added convenience of both a separate toilet and laundry.

Downstairs there is a sizeable rumpus room (with bar) that leads off the entry
