River View Charmer

Offering stunning views out towards the Tamar River this delightfully presented residence is a rare find in the current market.

Built in 1961 there is a unique floorplan on offer here with three double bedrooms, one bathroom and two comfortable living areas. This home is naturally light throughout with the added convenience of an efficient wood heater, plus two reverse cycle heat pumps ensuring year-round comfort.

The neat, functional kitchen has brand new appliances and ample space for food preparation, including a moveable island bench. The adjoining butler's pantry incorporates a laundry nook and provides a substantial amount of extra storage.

Glass sliding doors lead out to a generous front deck offering magnificent water views while the undercover side deck is ideal for all season entertaining. There is a large timber outbuilding ready to be converted into a workshop or studio, along with a remote access single garage and ample parking for the boat or caravan.

This immaculate 1169m2 allotment offers much potential, currently boasting neatly landscaped gardens and sprawling lawn areas at the front and back. West Tamar Council have indicated there is space to potentially build an
